Christian-Muslim engagement

'Food for the Journey is a joint, lay led project of the Lichfield Diocese and the Wolverhampton and Shrewsbury Methodist District. For the past 15 years we have held day and weekend conferences for all.

Highlights of the day:

- The Right Revd Dr Michael Ipgrave, the Bishop of Lichfield, leading a Bible Study.
- Khayaal Theatre Company performing two cross cultural stories followed by a discussion workshop promoting reconciliation between Christians and Muslims.
- local Christian-Muslim Projects sharing their recent experiences of working together.
- time for worship and fellowship
- a two course lunch in the restaurant.
- tea and coffee facilities are available all day.
- the Cathedral bookshop will bring a selection of suitable books.
- accessible facilities for all.
