Matthew 10:42 ... "whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

There seems to be a lot of pressure going on in the readings today. Jeremiah and Paul stick to their messages despite opposition. Jesus tells his disciples of trouble ahead. The verse above stands out as solace in the middle of the pressure. I imagine most of us have benefitted from small acts of kindness in recent months and have ourselves acted more gently and kindly towards others given the pressures of these extraordinary days. Gestures that normally might have passed us by unnoticed have become like a lifegiving cold drink of water to the thirsty. I'm reminded of two stories where small gestures of meant everything. Bishop Desmond Tutu at the age of nine saw a tall, white priest, Archbishop Trevor Huddleston, do something unheard of at the time of apartheid. He doffed his hat in greeting to Tutu's mother a working-class black woman. This respectful act became a defining moment in Tutu's life and contributed to him becoming a priest and to his lifelong struggle for justice. The other act of kindness is recorded by Oscar Wilde. In the custody of prison guards, handcuffed and humiliated, he was moved through a hostile crowd. He was jeered and spat on. One man acted differently - he respectfully raised his hat. This was as a drink of cold water to the broken poet and playwright. He wrote that the memory of that small kindness ... 'made the desert blossom like a rose and brought me out of the bitterness of lonely exile into harmony with the wounded, broken and great heart of the world.'

Sunday Worship

There are plenty of opportunities to join in worship if you have the internet. We are encouraging everyone to link up with the live stream worship being offered by the Birmingham District via FaceBook on Sunday mornings at: <https://www.facebook.com/Birminghammethodistdistrict/live>

In addition, we will be offering services online on the Circuit's own FaceBook page or via YouTube:

https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story_fbid=142865293925553&id=110929903785759
