Superintendent Minister: Rev Dr Iain Ballard

Dear Friends

Autumn is most definitely here with leaves on the ground and evenings drawing in. We have started the new Connexional Year and our Autumn Church Councils are now well under way. Some of us are meeting in person and some via zoom, however we meet it's good to catch up.

There is much to discuss and reflect on in our Churches including the God in Love Unites Us Report adopted by Conference and the future organisation of the Circuit. It is good to share our thoughts and concerns as we plan and move forward together.

It's not always easy to open our hearts and minds to new ideas and new ways of doing things but we endeavour to do so prayerfully. Sometimes we find we struggle with change and other times we embrace change wholeheartedly. However we feel, we put our trust in the Lord to guide and be with us on our journey together and we are thankful for his constant presence amongst us.

Circuit Steward
