

Worship for 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time (complete text. A video version is also online)
Keep safe. Keep caring. Keep praying.

---

Welcome to worship with the South Warwickshire Methodist Circuit this morning. Wherever you are watching, you are most welcome.
Thank you to everyone who has contributed to our service: Kat Pearson for choosing the hymns; Graham Howe & Jeongsook Kim for the readings; Iain Ballard for the Sermon and to Ann Howe and Anne Oliver (that's me!) for the prayers. Kate Tennyson and Tim Pearson have done the technical work putting this all together, thank you.
If you would like to take part, then please get in touch with the Circuit Office on swc.katetennyson@gmail.com

THE PREPARATION

Call to worship

Come to the God who knows us,
To the God who created our being,
To the God who knows our frailty,
To the God who loves and cherishes us beyond measure.
Come as you are and worship God.
Amen.

Hymn: Cornerstone – Hillsong

My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness
I dare not trust the sweetest frame
But wholly trust in Jesus' name

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness
I dare not trust the sweetest frame
But wholly trust in Jesus' name

Christ alone; cornerstone
Weak made strong in the Saviour's love

Through the storm, He is Lord
Lord of all

When Darkness seems to hide His face I rest on His unchanging grace
In every high and stormy gale
My anchor holds within the veil
My anchor holds within the veil

Christ alone; cornerstone
Weak made strong in the Saviour's love
Through the storm, He is Lord
Lord of all
He is Lord
Lord of all

Christ alone; cornerstone
Weak made strong in the Saviour's love
Through the storm, He is Lord
Lord of all

Christ alone; cornerstone
Weak made strong in the Saviour's love
Through the storm, He is Lord
Lord of all

When He shall come with trumpet sound Oh, may I then in Him be found Dressed in His righteousness alone Faultless stand before the throne

Prayer of approach

O God, you are at the heart of creation.
Your word brings life into being;
your peace gives living its fulfilment;
your Spirit unites us into your Son.
We draw near, seeking your love in our hearts;
your wisdom in our minds; your power in our lives.
Receive us with grace, in the name of your Son.
Amen.

Prayer of adoration

Based on Psalm 8

O Lord, our sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
Your glory reaches beyond the highest heavens,
O Lord, our sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
By the youngest to the eldest your praise is spoken forth,
O Lord, our sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
In sky, on land, and in water your creativity is seen,
O Lord, our sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
Amen.

Prayer of confession

Lord Jesus, you send us into the world, but we confess that our vision is narrow;
you give us clear commandments,
but we pretend not to understand them;
you promise to be with us always,
but we ignore your presence and follow our own way.
Forgive us; give us fresh vision and restore us to your way,
we pray.
Amen.

Declaration of forgiveness

Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.
This is His gracious word:
“Your sins are forgiven”
Amen. Thanks be to God.

Hymn: StF 167 – Colours of day dawn into the mind

- 1. Colours of day dawn into the mind, the sun has come up, the night is behind.
Go down in the city, into the street, and let’s give the message to the people we meet.

So light up the fire and let the flame burn,
open the door, let Jesus return.

Take seeds of his Spirit, let the fruit grow,
tell the people of Jesus, let his love show.

- 2. Go through the park, on into the town;
the sun still shines on; it never goes down.
The light of the world is risen again;
the people of darkness are needing a friend.

So light up the fire and let the flame burn,
open the door, let Jesus return.

Take seeds of his Spirit, let the fruit grow,
tell the people of Jesus, let his love show.

- 3. Open your eyes, look into the sky, the darkness has come, the sun came to die.
The evening draws on, the sun disappears, but Jesus is living, his Spirit is near.

So light up the fire and let the flame burn,
open the door, let Jesus return.

Take seeds of his Spirit, let the fruit grow,
tell the people of Jesus, let his love show.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Psalm                      Psalm 8

(New Revised Standard Version)

how majestic is your name in all the earth!

You have set your glory above the heavens.

<sup>2</sup> Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes,
to silence the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>3</sup>When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;

<sup>4</sup>what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?

<sup>5</sup>Yet you have made them a little lower than God and crowned them with glory and honor.

<sup>6</sup>You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;

you have put all things under their feet,

<sup>7</sup>all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,

<sup>8</sup>the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

<sup>9</sup>O Lord, our Sovereign,

how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Gospel                      Matthew 28:16-20

The Commissioning of the Disciples

<sup>16</sup>Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.

<sup>17</sup>When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. <sup>18</sup>And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup>Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup>and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Sermon

September is a month of new beginnings:
children starting or restarting schools;
universities will, in some way, recommence teaching; and in the Methodist church it is the beginning of our new connexional year – Things start again. And so it is a time of firsts – my first meetings here; my first services here. And over the last few days, I've been reflecting back on firsts.

I remember my first days at high school, we had a Vice Principal – Mr Edwards. He was an interesting chap, who was about 6 ft tall, built as a rugby playing forward and had a very thick,

Welsh accent. He was somebody to be feared but the first time you met him would be in your first few days at school as he ran the dinner queue. As you queued up to enter the dining hall, he would come down the queue, reminding himself of the names of boys who'd been at the school for some time and learning the names of those of us as first years. And so in a school much bigger than the primary school I'd attended, I stood in that dinner queue thinking how wonderful it was that somebody as important as the Vice Principal was wanting to know my name. Of course there was another motive – later when I was misbehaving or running or doing something I shouldn't – what was shouted wasn't 'Oi! You!' but my name. The authority he had came from knowing us and from being able to stop us dead in our tracks. It was an authority that began with care but made sure that we acted in a way that didn't put ourselves or others at risk.

And so I reflect on the closing words of Matthew's Gospel – Jesus opens this short discourse with the words 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me'. And I wonder if we realise just what that means?
Jesus doesn't have some authority – many of us through our work, our lives, through church, through family and parenthood, or grandparenthood, have authority, we have some form of power over other people or over our own lives. Yet Jesus is not claiming to have some authority – he is saying he has been given all authority. There is no body with more authority than him – in heaven or on the earth. And I wonder when we read the gospels, and we hear Jesus's words, and through the Spirit when we experience the presence of Christ in our own lives, whether we are acknowledging that he has all, all authority.

Because if we did acknowledge that Jesus had all authority, then his words, his commandment, his actions have huge implications for how we do things, for how we live our lives, for how we interact with each other and with God. It won't become something we could listen to for a short while on a Sunday or watching worship online but impacts every moment of our being.

And so I invite you to press pause and to take some time to consider in your life, in the way you are, in the things that you do – are you declaring that Jesus has all authority over you? or are you proclaiming to have authority over Jesus? - are you claiming to know better, to know more and to have more power than God the Father who gave the authority to Jesus? Take some time and reflect on that question.

Jesus having declared he has all authority gives a number of commandments to the disciples, and that begins with 'Go'. 'Go therefore and make disciples of all nations'. It is not a request, - often as children, I remember being told to remember to say please, and I hear myself saying it now or thinking it if I hear someone ask for something and they don't say please – I have to sometimes hold myself back and not say 'what's the word?'. But Jesus deliberately doesn't say 'Please'. He deliberately doesn't say 'if you would like to'. This is a command. This is written to be something that Jesus is telling us to do. Go therefore means, because he has all authority, he is telling us to go and make disciples. What a commission! What a role and responsibility we have as disciples of Christ, to not only disciple ourselves but to take the Good News to all around us - sometimes in the words that we speak, sometimes in the way that we live and sometimes in our actions towards others. But the call is there – to take this good news, that God loves all people - and to make that good news real for people.

But Jesus isn't telling us to go and make believers, even the devil believes. He is wanting us to go and make disciples, people who follow him, people who recognise his authority, read his word and then do their best to live by it. But for that relationship with Jesus to be more than simply reading the words of scripture, for it to be a real, and alive, and life-giving relationship with Christ.

There've been many occasions I've had conversations where people have found difficulty and they've said, 'I've not known how people could live through this and not have faith, because it is my faith that is keeping me going.' I wonder what life would be like for me without faith – this faith, - knowing that I am loved and responding to that love - has had such an impact. If that has had an impact for you, then surely there is a need to tell others there is more to life. There is a God who loves us and wants a relationship with us. Who wants us to live and be the very best people we can be as disciples of Christ.

When I hear those words – 'go and make disciples' – there's a bit of me going 'Oh but, send them, send somebody else, somebody else can do this'. The story of the calling of Moses, - here I am lord, send my brother. And it's easy for us to think that the making of disciples is somebody else's job. I'm convinced that it is the role of every Christian, to be part of that Good News story. That isn't that we all need to stand on street corners or with big boards on us. But it is how we live, and it is being ready to explain our faith. 'So why do you do this? Why do you worship? - Many times – Why do you go to church on a Sunday? We might think that we can't make disciples. There isn't anything that Jesus asks his disciples to do that he knows they can't do. Jesus doesn't set us up to fail, instead Jesus sets us up to tell stories of Good News. A few months ago, having led a course entitled 'Talking of Jesus', an elderly man from one of my churches rang the manse, he was excited, - he'd got home from doing some shopping, he was excited, because on his way home, somebody had stopped him and asked him about something, and he had managed to get in to that conversation, 'God loves you'. And he'd never done it before, but the impact it had on him, that he was able to do something, was huge Jesus goes on reminding us that disciples are baptised into the family of God. But he then commands that we should teach them to obey everything that Jesus has commanded. When we hear the stories of Jesus, he tells us and reminds us that the greatest commandments are love: that we love God, that we love one another as God has loved us. This, in so many ways, is the mission of the Church – it is about showing love in every possible way. As Methodists we might say that is our call to social holiness or social justice. It is challenging the injustices of this world. It is not simply giving food to a food bank; but challenging why are people poor in the first place? What is unequal about our society? It's going beyond normal and if God loves you this much, why is this happening? Its what we might call mission, but mission and evangelism go together. We are called to be disciples to go and take good news – sometimes that taking of good news is a meal, is clothing, is dignity, is giving of our time to somebody who feels they are worthless, it is praying for somebody when there is nothing else we can do but pray.

Everything that Jesus has commanded, is that we love, and that isn't one day a week, or part of the time, or when it suits us, or when the other person is lovable, but it's all the time. Now Jesus knows we are not perfect, just as Mr Edwards had to shout my name once or twice down the corridor, we are not perfect. And perhaps that is one of the greatest aspects of the Church. We are not perfect. And so when we call out to others we're not saying come and be perfect, what we're saying is come and be part of the family of God where we strive to be better than we are, and our imperfections, the things we get wrong, have already been covered by grace.

Jesus reminds them he is with them always. He is with us always – to the end of the age. This is the calling of the Church to recognise that Jesus has all authority in heaven and on earth; to go and make disciples of all nations, of all people everywhere. To teach them everything Jesus has commanded, to love one another as he has loved us. That is our calling as Church. That is who we are meant to be. Make time to consider how you, how you as an individual, how you as a part of Church, might respond to the calling of God
Amen.

Hymn: Build Your Kingdom Here (Rend Collective)

Build Your kingdom here
Let the darkness fear
Show Your mighty hand
Heal our streets and land
Set Your church on fire
Win this nation back
Change the atmosphere
Build Your kingdom here
We pray

Come set Your rule and reign
In our hearts again
Increase in us we pray Unveil why we're made Come set our hearts ablaze with hope Like wildfire in our very souls
Holy Spirit come invade us now
We are Your Church
And we need Your power
In us

We seek Your kingdom first We hunger and we thirst Refuse to waste our lives
For You're our joy and prize
To see the captive hearts released
The hurt, the sick, the poor at peace
We lay down our lives for Heaven's cause
We are Your church

And we pray revive This earth (We're prayin' for revival)

Build Your kingdom here
Let the darkness fear
Show Your mighty hand
Heal our streets and land
Set Your church on fire
Win this nation back
Change the atmosphere
Build Your kingdom here
We pray (Change the atmosphere)

Unleash Your kingdom's power Reaching the near and far No force of hell can stop Your beauty changing hearts
You made us for much more than this Awake the kingdom seed in us Fill us with the strength and love of Christ
We are Your church
Oh, and we are the hope
On earth

Build Your kingdom here
Let the darkness fear
Show Your mighty hand
Heal our streets and land
Set Your church on fire
Win this nation back
Change the atmosphere
Build Your kingdom here
We pray (Change the atmosphere, build Your kingdom here)

Build Your kingdom here
Let the darkness fear
Show Your mighty hand
Heal our streets and land
Set Your church on fire
Win this nation back
Change the atmosphere
Build Your kingdom here
We pray (Let's win this nation back!)

THE RESPONSE

Prayers of thanksgiving

Gracious God, we thank you for your great, sacrificial love which bringing us hope whether in times of trouble or of joy.

We thank you for the opportunity at the beginning of this New Methodist Year, to find a fresh new start, a re-commissioning to go forth and tell.

Lord Jesus, we thank you for giving us life and challenging us to find ways to love and serve one another, to work for social justice, to love and serve your Church and so to love and serve you, by the grace and power of the Holy Spirit.

Hymn: StF 409: Let us build a house where love can dwell

- 1. Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:

*All are welcome,
all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.
- 2. Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:

*All are welcome,
all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.
- 3. Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:
a banquet hall on holy ground

where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us:

*All are welcome,
all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

4. Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone to heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face;
let us bring an end to fear and danger:

*All are welcome,
all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

5. Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and love and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter,
prayers of faith and songs of grace, let this house proclaim from floor to rafter:

*All are welcome,
all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

Prayers of intercession

Heavenly Father will you lead us to continue to find fresh, new opportunities in reaching people through digital, online means as well as by reopening our buildings, in all the ways we can, wherever we can.

Holy Spirit, will you guide those meeting to interpret rules on safely being together in new and relevant ways and enable your gifts to be used among our neighbours.

We pray for the leaders of the nations and those who have authority, that you will guide them to embrace the rich diversity you have created and lead in justice, freedom and peace

We pray for decision makers and movers in our country, that they will have compassion on those marginalised by poverty, illness, disability, gender or ethnicity,
that they will enable the standards of your kingdom, of wisdom and integrity to inform their actions
and that they will govern wisely.

Holy Spirit we pray, too for comfort for all who are suffering illness or it' long-term effects, for those who are mourning, for those who are in need and those who are supporting them, that they may know your courage, strength and hope.

The Lord's Prayer

We say together the prayer that Jesus gave us:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
As we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen

The Offering & prayer

We bring you all we can of our gifts of life and talent,
time and money,
in whatever way we can to serve you.

Amen

THE DISMISSAL

Hymn: StF 82 – O Lord my God when I in awesome wonder

1. O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds thy hand has made, I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed:

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!
then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!*

2. When through the woods, and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees; when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur, and hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze:

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!
then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!*

3. And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in that on the cross, my burden gladly bearing, he bled and died to take away my sin:

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!
then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!*

4. When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home – what joy shall fill my heart; then shall I bow in humble adoration, and there proclaim: my God, how great thou art:

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!
then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!

Prayer & blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you;
the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace.

So go in peace to love, serve and tell.

Amen
